TRADE AND TRAVEL FACTS—GERMANY

Prepared By: Crystal Watson

TRADE

- Germany is the largest European trading partner with the United States, and the 6th largest US export partner.
  - The US exports approximately $53 billion in goods to Germany each year. The top 3 exports are cars, civilian aircraft and aircraft parts, and pharmaceutical preparations.
  - Germany exports approximately $118 billion in goods to the US each year. The top exports include cars, car parts, and high-end medical equipment and machinery.

TRAVEL

- Approximately 2 million people travel from Germany to the US each year.
- More than 2.5 million people arrive in Germany from the US annually.

ECONOMY AND POLITICS

- Germany is the strongest economy in the EU and is also a world economic leader. Germany’s share of world exports is around 10%, which is higher than the US and just behind China.
- Germany is the largest consumer market in the EU.

REFERENCES

Date: May 6, 2018

Prepared as background material by the Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security for the Clade X tabletop exercise